TAG Newsletter

MAY 1999

President: Jim Finch

Editor: Dixie Allan

From the President

It has been an enjoyable year for me to serve as your president, and I am grateful for all the fine help I received. I want to thank the Executive Board, the Committee Chairs and Assistants and everyone else who pitched in to help with various work that needed doing. The hostesses were marvelous to bring us such scrumptious goodies.

Craig Carlson gave us a wonderful demonstration at our April meeting. He explained very clearly how and why he took certain steps in his painting process. With some humor too I might add. David Phillips was a good model, and we thank him for his contribution.

At our May meeting, we will have Clark Ellefson speak to us about interior design and how art fits into that endeavor. We have some door prizes too, so let's have a good turnout for our last meeting before the summer break.

Another reason to come May 10th is to vote on the nominees for the Executive Board for the year 1999-2000. The nominees are listed in this newsletter. See you at the meeting.

We had a great Annual Exhibit and I enjoyed seeing so many of you there. Many thanks to Pat Pollard and Dee Hansen for organizing such a wonderful show. We were delighted that Pat Spear handled the refreshments to well. Dixie Allan produced a very nice awards brochure, and I know many others helped with the Exhibit. Thank You All.

FOR SALE: 5 large aluminum display screens and one Seerite Opaque Projector.

New policies at Blue Cross Blue Shield

To ensure and control the proper inventory of paintings located at Blue Cross Blue Shield Tower, the following new guidelines have been implemented:

1. Each artist will sign in the visitor book and be issued a guest pass.
2. If a painting is being brought into the Tower, the painting will be logged in by the security personnel on the current inventory log sheet.
3. If a painting is being removed by the artist, the painting will be logged out of the current inventory sheet by the security officer.
4. If a painting is sold, the artist will notify the security officer of the buyer’s identity and the painting sold. The buyer will be directed to the security desk to log the painting out as being sold.
5. Security officers will not accept any usc/payment from any buyers. The artist will set up a mutually agreed date and time with the buyer to accept payment.

If you have news for the newsletter, you will now need to notify Carol Monroe, 7261 Patricia Drive, Columbia, SC 29209 – phone – 776-5173. If possible, it is best to give information for the newsletter in writing rather than telephone.

Thanks to Dee Hansen for her drawing of this tree that we used for the cover of the Annual Exhibit Program.

Notice to Executive Board Nominees

Please plan to attend our meeting on May 10 if you can. Also, plan to attend the Board meeting at 12:00 p.m. on May 12 at the Recreation Center so we can make the transition from the present Board to

Award Correction

We apologize to Barbie Mathis for the error in the Awards Brochure. It incorrectly lists Bonnie Mathis as receiving a Merit Award. Well, guess what – Bonnie is actually Barbie!

Winner of Popular Award

This year, the members attending the annual Exhibit voted for their favorite painting and this "Popular Award" went to Dee Hansen. Congratulations to Dee!
