MORE WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Our March meeting was attended by 43 members and guests who were treated to a dual slide projector show which compared the middle and end stages of several works by Phillip Mullen. Phillip also brought a set of diagrams explaining how various elements of his works "talk" or relate to each other. It was a fine presentation showing some very subtle relationships within the paintings... things the experienced painter could use and also an added insight for anyone interested in seeing two dimensional works of Art.

Martha Davis and the other members who helped prepare our refreshments and set the tables did a fine job. We all appreciate their work so much.

We now have the Nominating Committee in place and only two more meetings left in our calendar year. If you know someone who wishes to serve as an officer in our guild, please, contact Niles Storrs (256-7852), Donna Lynn Gore (781-3827), or Juanita Yancey (772-9618) with the name of your candidate. Please ask your nominee if he/she is interested in serving if you advance the nomination.

For our program in April, April 9th, painter/sculptor Mike Williams will share the evening with us. His works in paint and canvas are seen around the state and this well known artist should provide another fine program.

Spring is here! The days are getting longer and warmer. Come paint on Wednesdays at the park and join the fun at the monthly programs. It's a pleasure to see all of our members at the meetings. I hope you'll join us.

ARTISTS LEARN LOTS AT SPRINGMAID

Carol Dupre and Margaret Trail braved cold weather at their Springmaid Beach experience but the weather didn't interfere with their learning new techniques and meeting new people. Carol took lessons from Alex Power and Margaret from Carey Brown. They saw Marjorie Ross, Susie Farrell, Anna K. Singley, Angela Bradburn there plus many others. Carol and Margaret plan to go back!

LAST NEWS ABOUT JURIED SHOW

Emily Short, Chairman of the Juried Show, has a few more words to say about the show: The juror is Steve Nevitt who is Professor of Art at Columbia College. He will do an excellent job of deciding who wins the awards. Also: No art-work may be removed from the exhibit until the end on April 16. No exceptions.

Don't forget the Reception on THURSDAY, April 5, from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. Awards will be announced and prizes given and delicious food will be ready. Good luck to us all and remember, next year TAG does it again.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS TOO GOOD TO MISS

Sara Gray sold her painting "Azaleas" at the Richland Memorial Hospital 'Gallery' last month. Carol Monroe sold her 'Daisy' also. This just shows that paintings can be sold at RMH, at BC/BS, and at the Eye Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia. All you have to do is pull your work out from under the bed and take it to one of the above. Lois Wilson and Carol DuPre each sold a painting at the State Fair in the fall.

Toni Elkins has done it again! She will be showing at the following venues during April and May: Western Federation of Watercolor Societies in Utah; WC Society of Alabama 60th National Convention in Talladega; WC Missouri National 1st Annual Open Exhibition in Fulton; Northwest WC Society 61st Annual Open Exhibition in Bellevue, WA. Way to go, Toni.
