A Message from Frank

February 2006

Greetings! This is to me the dullest time of the year. What with the past excitement of the “Holiday Season” and the anticipation of “income tax” plus the blah weather, all I can do is think about painting, but I can’t get inspired. On the other hand by the time we have our February meeting on the 13th, the month will be almost half gone and only a couple of weeks until March, which to me is almost spring. Hurrah! Then again, it is almost time for our annual show and we are behind in our painting as well as collections for the prizes etc. We may have to give out hard candy and Oreos instead of ribbons and cash. Make your contacts and report to Meg McLean. Check the other parts of this epistle for information and spiritual guidance. Attend the meetings. Paint. Happy Valentine’s Day! Frank.

SPEAKER FOR FEBRUARY 13th:

Robert Hickman will be our speaker for the Monday meeting as well as our annual workshop presenter. Robert is a graduate of Irmo High School and Clemson University with a degree in mechanical engineering. After graduation he worked for Michelin Tire Company as a machine designer. His first experiment in painting was in 1994 with NASCAR subjects as early favorites. He left Michelin in 1996 and became an associate artist with a racing gallery in Charlotte, N.C. In 1998 he completed his first wildlife painting and changed his focus to wildlife and sporting dogs.

His work has been featured on many magazine covers and he has won awards in the S.C. Duck Stamp Competition. He has also been juried into the S.C. Artisan’s Center in Walterboro. His demonstration will be in acrylic.

WORKSHOP INFORMATION:

Pat Devoe reports that she has a few openings left in the workshop on February 14, 15 and 16. If you are unable to attend all three days you may take one or two days. The cost per day is $33.00. Supplies will be provided for $22.00 if you do not have acrylic paints.

TAG sponsors this annual workshop for its members to expand our horizons. At any workshop you attend you learn something that can be applied to your own medium. Don’t be stuck in a rut. Support TAG and the good folks who work so hard for your benefit. Contact Pat Devoe at 755-8447. If you have already signed up for the workshop please bring the balance owed to the Monday meeting. Thanks.

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES FOR FEBRUARY 13th:

SCWS NEWS:

Gail Ayres will be presenting and demonstrating “Processing the Image-The Art of Printmaking” on Sunday, February 5 at 3:00 p.m. in the Garden Terrace of the Columbia Museum of Art. This is an exceptionally exciting program. Each year, one of our Columbia art leagues sponsors the SCWS Regional meeting. This year we are fortunate to have our workshop and this Columbia regional at our museum. The public is welcome, so artists come in groups and bring your friends. This is a free event.
