Don't miss out! Sign up today!

SPEAKER FOR FEBRUARY 12:

Phillip Mullen will be our guest for this month. Dr. Mullen served as USC art professor from 1969 and retired in 2000. Art collections that can boast having his work include locations across the US (from our own Columbia Museum of Art to Guggenheim Museum NY to Max Factor in Hollywood CA) and the world (Sonje Museum in Korea and Crown Prince Fadio Abdulaziz, Saudia Arabia). He is a skillful draughtsman as shown in his masterful drawing of the USC library from the difficult perspective of the south balcony. His koi paintings are full of lively movement and rich color. His twelve- foot work hanging in Neiman Marcus of Dallas Texas was featured in a movie. You may have seen his rendering of Neil Diamond in our local YMCA. Currently he is working on another solo exhibition for the David Findlay Gallery in NY with whom he has had 12 solo shows since 1975. (See David Findlay Galleries on the web) He is an artist treasure living here in SC. Please join us for his PowerPoint presentation next month.

HOSPITALITY NOTES:

Those scheduled to furnish refreshments this month are Judy Johnson, Clarita Riba, Sandra Phaup, Blanche Quinn, Beverly Stidham, Virginia Elder, Larry LeFebvre and Denby Gorman.
