

February 14, 2011
 6:30 Social; 7:00 Meeting
 Forest Lake Park
 SC Watermedia Society Regional Gathering

Larry Leach, Winsor-Newton representative, will provide sample watercolours and mediums for the first 60 participants who sign in.

Larry will demonstrate and lecture about the technical aspects of painting with watercolour. The session will begin with a brief history of the use of watercolour pigment and its binder. He will include colour mixing with an emphasis on the contrast of granulation/staining colour; the 96 colours (75 from a single pigment source), and will follow with mixing of various organic and inorganic colours.

The demo will be conducted with a Kolinsky series 7 brush (#7 or 8), mediums and paper will be demonstrated.

Member Successes:

Congratulations to Paul Palmer, Charleston Artists Guild Annual Members Exhibition Third Place Photography: Fall on East Cooper Branch. He took the photo November 22, 2010, from a kayak on the East Branch, Cooper River near Quinby Creek, Huger, SC

Linda Kincaid won second place in the Camden Art Association Member Show. Her woodburned and painted picture was of old cowboy boots and an Indian blanket. The exhibit will remain in the Fine Arts Center in Camden until February 7. Also the winners will be displaying up to 10 pieces of art each in the Fine Arts Center's Bassett Gallery for the month of May.

Barbara Yongue: "I won by a nose, literally." The 7th annual portrait contest took place at the Columbia Museum of Art on Saturday, January 22. The artists are randomly paired and made portraits of each other in elimination rounds. According to Leslie Pierce, Associate Director of Public Programs and Community Relations, TAG member Barbara Yongue won first place! 2nd place was Roy Paschal, 3rd place winners were David West and Ron Chapiesky.

About Face is a group of artists that share a figural model in the Museum's studios. This group, representing a wide range of ages and abilities, offers a supportive and friendly atmosphere in which to hone artistic skills. http://www.columbiamuseum.org/programs/about_face.php

President's Corner

Stacy Morgan

I hope everyone is as excited as I am about our February meeting! It has been too long since we have seen each other, with no meetings in December or January!

Hopefully we will have bright, clear skies on February 14 for our meeting, and bright, full hearts since that is Valentine's Day! Gail Cunningham has arranged a great program for us – it's definitely a "don't miss"! Everyone will benefit from this Winsor & Newton demonstration with an emphasis on color mixing. This will be great motivation to work on the paintings for our HOFP show! I will see you on Valentine's Day!!
